Little Llanthomas

Penyclawdd, Monmouth

Enjoying an idyllic rural position amid rolling countryside, this delightful Grade II listed, 4 -bedroom "chocolate box" cottage is set in just under 3 acres of beautifully maintained gardens and pastureland. Dating back to the late 1500s and thoughtfully enhanced during the Georgian period, it combines historic charm with exceptional craftsmanship across 3 well-appointed floors. The driveway leads to a generous gravelled parking area and a substantial stone outbuilding, offering conversion potential subject to necessary planning permissions.

The property is traditionally built-in stone, with inset wooden-framed windows and doors beneath a pitched slate roof. Internally, features include an original inglenook fireplace, exposed beams, trusses and stonework, solid wood ledged-and-braced doors, open cast-iron grate fireplaces, low-voltage downlighters, and a mix of quarry tile, wooden boarded, flagstone and carpeted flooring. A gas-fired boiler supplies domestic hot water and heating via sectional radiators throughout.

The main entrance to the property is from the front, under the porch and through a vertically boarded hardwood door with viewing panel into:
