IF YOU LIVED HERE....

Step inside and the sense of space is immediate. The living area feels open, generous and full of light, with walnut flooring running underfoot and wide glazing framing the greenery beyond. Sliding doors open directly onto a lush private balcony, bringing in even more natural light and creating an easy connection to the outdoors.

The separate kitchen is neatly arranged with warm-toned plywood cabinetry and granite worktops; with a direct connection to the main living space. Spread across two floors, the layout feels wonderfully practical, with bedrooms and bathroom sitting on their own private upper-level.

Both bedrooms are generous doubles, with the principal bedroom enjoying access to the second private balcony. From here, you can look out towards the canal and Mile End Park, a rare bit of calm in such a connected part of East London. A communal roof garden, secure internal off-street parking at ground level, lift access and concierge all add to the ease of living here.

WHAT ELSE?

- Victoria Park is a short walk away, perfect for weekend coffees, leafy walks, the food market and long summer afternoons by the lake.
- Regent's Canal is right on your doorstep, leading you towards Hackney Wick, the Olympic Park and beyond for waterside walks, cycle rides and easy weekend exploring.
- The Approach Tavern, The Palm Tree and Pretty Decent Beer Co. are all within easy reach, while Bethnal Green and Mile End Stations keeps the rest of London close.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER....

"We have had ten amazing years in the flat, it's really in a great location and having the canal on your doorstep is a real luxury and the view out to Mile End park ensures you'll never be overlooked by future development. It's a very comfortable and generously sized flat, with a lift providing easy access from street level and great for entertaining."
