Description

Jays Rest offers an exceptionally scarce opportunity to create a remarkable country residence of genuine architectural distinction within a near 3.5 acre plot, individually shaped around your own lifestyle, preferences and ambitions. Extending to an extraordinary 700.65 square metres, with a further 79.12 square metre garage and 109.25 square metre workshop, this is a home of exceptional scale that we firmly believe will command a value considerably beyond the total cost of its creation.

Set within grounds extending to approximately 3.5 acres in total, subject to final measurement, Jays Rest has been conceived on an extraordinary scale. The main residence alone will extend to 700.65 square metres, complemented by a substantial 79.12 square metre garage and separate 109.25 square metre workshop. Once completed, the property is projected to command a value comfortably in excess of £2,250,000, potentially more depending upon the final specification selected by its purchaser.

Yet through a carefully structured custom build arrangement with the landowner and highly esteemed construction company, this remarkable home can realistically be acquired and delivered to a high specification for circa £1,815,000 in total. The buyer will also benefit from their own dedicated project manager to oversee the entire construction process from beginning to end, providing guidance, coordination and reassurance throughout the creation of their finished home.

This is far removed from simply choosing and purchasing somebody else's house. It is the chance to create a home that is unmistakably your own. A residence shaped around how you want to live, with the freedom to influence everything from the internal arrangement and flow of individual rooms to the kitchen, bathrooms, bespoke joinery, flooring, finishes and ultimately even the colours on the walls. The finished result will be a genuinely individual home, created around its owner rather than a conventional developer specification or predetermined set of choices.

Location

Huish Episcopi is a village on the outskirts of Langport, 4 miles south west of Somerton. There are good recreational facilities and schools for all ages, church and local pub. Linked with Langport town, which is an ideal place to explore on foot, bike or water along the stunning River Parrett and a popular spot for paddle boarding, kayaking and swimming, with a number of pontoons added to assist users over the spring/summer period. For a small town, there is a comprehensive range of amenities including a number of independent shops, bakeries and cafes, takeaway restaurants, butchers, supermarket and pubs. There are also a vets in town, dentist and doctors surgeries, garages and petrol station. Well positioned for A303 and M5 and the nearest train stations are in Taunton & Yeovil with direct links to Paddington & Waterloo.

The proposed architecture is every bit as impressive as the scale of the house itself. Natural stonework and crisp rendered elevations are brought together beneath a pitched slate roof, whilst extensive anthracite framed glazing introduces a distinctly contemporary edge. Dramatic glazed gables, full height windows and substantial glazed openings create a striking relationship between the house, its terraces, gardens and surrounding landscape. The result is a bold contemporary country home that combines traditional form and materials with an altogether more modern approach to light, space and outlook.

The scale and arrangement of the design provide the opportunity to create some truly exceptional internal spaces. The extensive glazing is intended to bring natural light deep into the house and establish a strong connection between the principal rooms and the grounds beyond. Generous terraces extend the living environment outside, creating the potential for the home and gardens to work together as one, whether for everyday family life or large scale entertaining.
