Highfield Road, Newbury, RG14 7AQ

Highfield Road, Newbury

A wonderfully characterful 1930s bay-fronted three bedroom family home, nestled on a quiet cul-de-sac comprised of similar period properties that falls within the catchment areas of St John's, St Nic's and St Bart's.

The property benefits from an abundance of period features in keeping with the age of the property (doors, picture rails, windows and flooring), a south facing rear garden and an outbuilding with power, light and water. Other benefits include gas central heating and a mixture of the original windows and uPVC double glazing.

The ground floor comprises of a sheltered storm porch, entrance hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room and a sun room. Upstairs there are two generously sized double bedrooms, a family bathroom and a versatile third bedroom that could be used as a home office.

Externally, the private south facing rear garden is primarily laid to lawn and bordered by a variety of mature bushes and trees.

The garden also features a pond and patio seating area and provides access to the outbuilding which has a utility area, W.C. and ample storage space. To the front of the property is a neat front garden with off-road parking provided via a gravel driveway.

Highfield Road is ideally located within walking distance of Newbury town centre and mainline railway station which provides regular direct links to London Paddington taking less than an hour.
