Situation

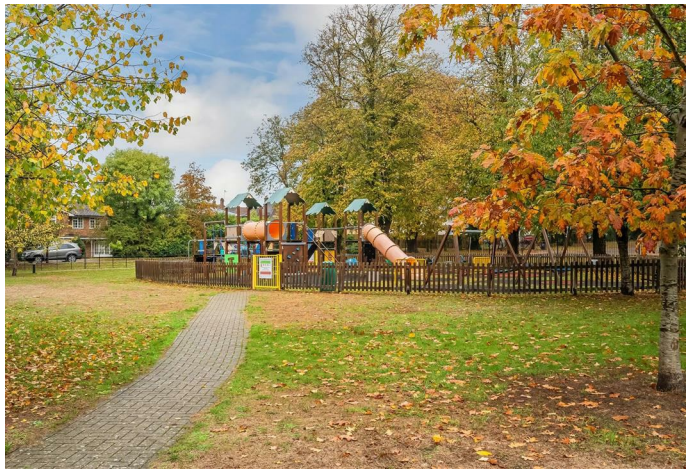

This home is situated in a popular residential area of Ashtead, Surrey, offering convenient access to the village centre, local amenities, schools and transport connections.

For everyday shopping, the village centre on The Street is easily accessible, with M&S Foodhall, Co-op, bakers and butchers among the local options. Ashtead's shops, cafés, restaurants and pubs provide a useful selection of amenities, while Leatherhead and Epsom offer a wider choice of retail, leisure and professional services.

The area is particularly well suited to families, with several schools within easy reach. West Ashtead Primary School, Barnett Wood Infant School, The Greville Primary School and St Giles' CofE Infant School are also nearby. St Peter's Catholic Primary School and Downsend School provide further educational options, while St Andrew's Catholic School is one of the closest secondary schools.

Transport links are another advantage. Ashtead railway station is approximately 1.6 kilometres (1 mile) from the property, with Leatherhead station around 2.5 kilometres away. Ashtead station provides rail services and has car parking, cycle storage and bus connections.

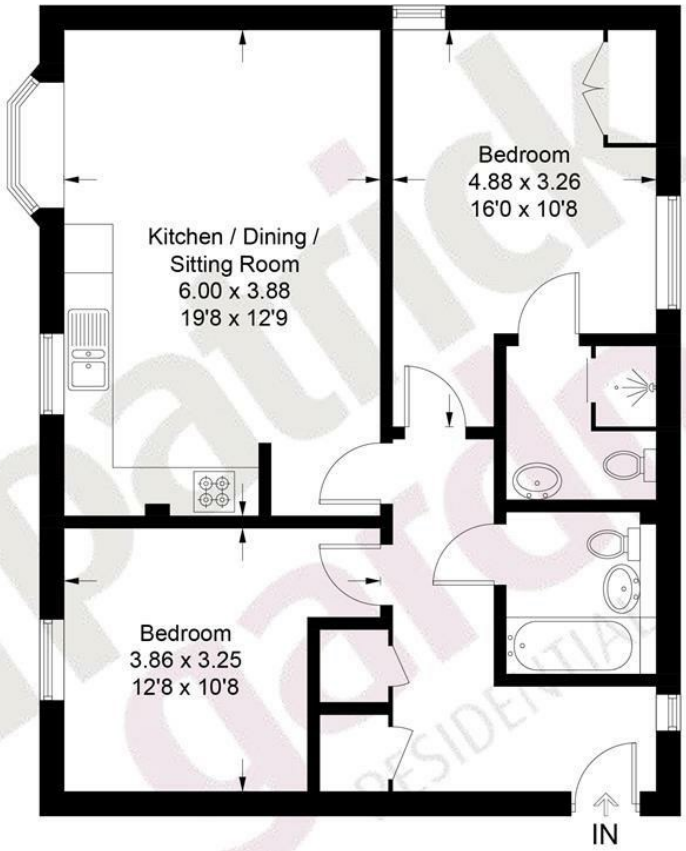

Please note. Purchasers will need to meet Shared Ownership affordability and eligibility criteria, complete an 'Apply to Buy' form along with separate financial qualification by Just Mortgages on behalf of Metropolitan Thames Valley Housing.
