

Disclaimer Important Notice: In accordance with the Property Misdescriptions Act (1991) we have prepared these Sales Particulars as a general guide to give a broad description of the property. They are not intended to constitute part of an offer or contract. We have not carried out a structural survey and the services, appliances and specific fittings have not been tested. Neither has the Agent checked legal documentation to verify the legal status of the property or the validity of any guarantees. All photographs, measurements, floorplans and distances referred to are given as a guide only and should not be relied upon for the purchase of carpets or any other fixtures or fittings. Lease details, service details and ground rent (where applicable) are given as a guide only and should be checked and confirmed by your solicitor prior to exchange of contracts. Please note, if the property is being purchased as buy to let, you should consider whether selective licensing is applicable. A non-refundable purchaser administration fee will be payable by the successful buyer to cover AML checks, identity verification, and proof of funds validation, with full details provided upon offer acceptance.

This spacious and beautifully presented cottage has been extensively modernised throughout while carefully preserving many restored character features, and is offered to the market in true turn-key condition. The property provides generous and versatile accommodation including four bedrooms and three reception rooms, all maintained to an exceptionally high standard.

Situated in the heart of the historic market town of Crowland, the cottage enjoys a delightful position overlooking a green area synonymous with the town. The property is offered for sale only due to relocation, with the current owners having undertaken important structural maintenance and significant improvements during their ownership. A comprehensive list of works and upgrades carried out is available upon request. Constructed in attractive stone and brick, this charming period home offers characterful and comfortable accommodation with further potential for sympathetic alterations to enhance the already generous living space. The immaculately presented accommodation briefly comprises an entrance lobby with convenient WC cloakroom. The breakfast room leads through to a fitted kitchen enjoying views over the rear and side gardens. There is a welcoming Lounge, a generously proportioned dining room, and a study leading to what is currently a store room, which offers excellent potential for conversion into a bright sun room. To the first floor, the landing provides two storage cupboards and leads to the principal bedroom with built-in wardrobes, along with three further bedrooms. The property also benefits from an attractive four-piece bath and shower room, with potential for an en-suite to be created from bedroom three. Externally, the property enjoys a charming cottage garden, fully enclosed and offering a high degree of privacy. Predominantly laid to lawn, the garden also includes a useful outbuilding with potential for conversion into a studio, garden room or home office. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, character and quality of accommodation offered by this exceptional period home in such a desirable historic setting.
