The property has been well maintained and offers practical, well-balanced accommodation suited to modern family living with a mixture of tiled and oak flooring throughout the ground floor. A generous entrance porch sets the tone on arrival, leading into a charming lounge featuring a multi-fuel stove and bay window. The spacious kitchen/dining room is a standout space, with a well-fitted kitchen complete with granite work surfaces, an island unit and a superb shelved walk-in pantry. Double doors from the dining area open directly onto a large patio terrace and the gardens. To the rear, a useful utility/sun room with cloakroom off provides additional everyday convenience and also gives access to the garden. Upstairs, there are three good-sized bedrooms, each enjoying either a downland or sea view/glimpse, along with a family bathroom that includes both a separate shower and a bath. Outside, the property benefits from off-road parking to the front and side, while the enclosed rear garden offers a lawn ideal for play and a generous patio terrace perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

LOCATION

Tucked away at the end of a short private lane off Monks Lane, The Cottage enjoys a peaceful semi-rural and coastal position, yet remains conveniently just over a mile from the village centre and its range of shops and amenities. The surrounding area is rich with footpaths and bridleways, offering wonderful coastal and countryside walks, including routes to the sandy shores of Colwell Bay with The Hut, a renowned coastal restaurant and the scenic coastal path around to Totland Bay.

Within a ten-minute drive lies the charming harbour town of Yarmouth, home to excellent sailing opportunities, welcoming pubs and restaurants, and the ferry link to Lymington, which provides onward rail connections to London Waterloo. This combination of tranquillity and accessibility makes the property perfectly suited as either a full-time residence or a relaxing holiday escape.
