A charming sitting room, complete with exposed beams and a rustic red brick feature fireplace, provides a warm and inviting welcome to this fabulous 19th-century cottage. From here, a door leads into a 12'2" (3.71m) galley-style kitchen, also featuring exposed beams, a stainless steel sink with drainer, worktops, space for freestanding appliances and a door opening out to the rear courtyard.

A steep staircase rises from the sitting room to the first floor, where the bedroom area continues the cottage's character with further exposed beams and a window overlooking the pretty village Main Street. A door off the bedroom leads through to the en-suite bathroom featuring fitted wardrobes and storage, wash basin, toilet and a bath with a shower above.

Additional internal features include a combination of single and double glazing, an LPG-fired central heating system and excellent scope for buyers to update and restyle both the kitchen and bathroom to their own taste.

Externally, parking is available on-street and to the rear there is a shared courtyard area providing a low-maintenance "lock-up-and-leave" outdoor space. Please note, there is a pedestrian right of way across the courtyard in favour of all 4 cottages.
