The Property:

Dating back to the 1700's this exceptional Grade II listed, four bedroom, two bathroom Cumbrian farmhouse combines timeless charm with modern comforts, offering a truly unique family home. Stepping inside, you are greeted by a series of inviting living spaces enriched with characterful exposed oak beams, ledged and braced cottage doors, period features, and abundant natural light. The open plan kitchen and dining areas are a highlight, featuring modern kitchen units, integrated appliances, and elegant Amtico flooring, all seamlessly connected and perfect for both everyday family life and entertaining.

The expansive living-dining room features an impressive stone inglenook fireplace with wood burning stove, creating a cosy room which belies its proportions. Upstairs, each bedroom is thoughtfully designed, showcasing vaulted or sloped ceilings, exposed beams, ample natural light, and period details. The bathrooms exude contemporary luxury, and south facing windows flood the space with light. Beyond the interiors, this property excels in delivering exceptional outdoor living. A glazed door leads out from the living kitchen to a beautifully landscaped, extensive garden, where mature trees, lush lawns, and vibrant flower beds create a tranquil haven for family gatherings and summer entertaining.

Multiple patio and seating areas provide the ideal setting for alfresco dining or simply enjoying the peace of the surrounding countryside, while a charming cobblestone courtyard and gravel pathways add character and ease of access around the grounds. The traditional stone exterior and rustic architectural details evoke a sense of history and warmth, perfectly complementing the home's rural setting.

Offroad parking and a large detached garage ensures convenience for family and guests alike. Breathtaking panoramic vistas of the green fields and nearby mountains provide an ever changing backdrop, promising serenity and a close connection to nature, whilst the adjacent one and a half acre paddock allows for hobby farming, a small pony or just a beautiful space to while away time. Perfectly suited to modern family living, this home offers spacious, sociable interiors and enchanting outdoor spaces brimming with possibilities. Whether relaxing by the fire, preparing feasts in the farmhouse kitchen, or soaking up the sun in the secluded garden, every aspect of this property is designed to foster comfort, connection, and lasting memories.
