Newport Pagnall
Buckinghamshire
MK16 8NR*

Freehold: £650,000

Leasehold: Nil premium

Annual Rent: £28,000

Ref: 3858263

DESCRIPTION

A character two storey property dating back to the 18th Century, constructed from part brick and part stone. Set in its own grounds with a separate barn to the rear and ample parking, the property also benefits from a relatively large garden.

The property has been extensively improved and modernised by the existing owners, it is currently closed but has maintained its decorative order. Following the closure of the pub, the property was used as a showroom for an interior design business with a usage class B2, but there is a range of potential uses for a new owner, including conversion to a stunning residential property.

LOCATION

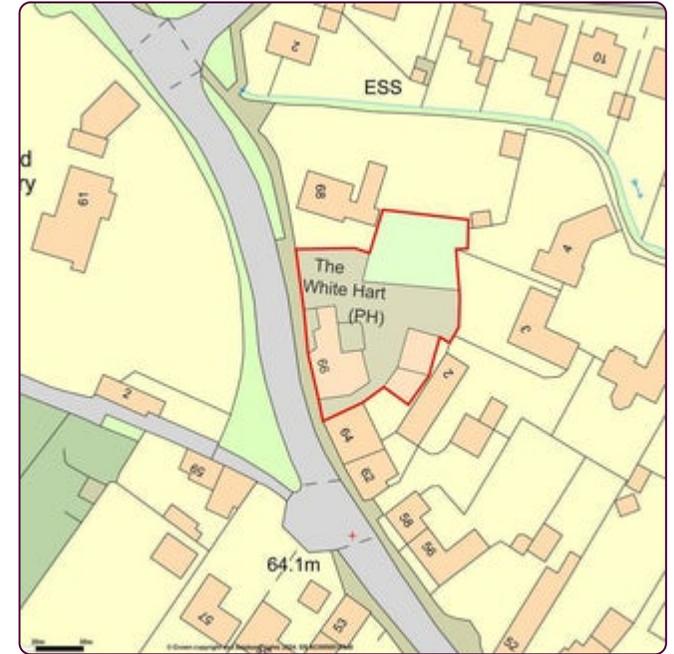

The former Malting House pub is located in the picturesque village of Stoke Goldington in the borough of Milton Keynes. It is located four miles north west of Newport Pagnell, ten miles north of Milton Keynes and 11 miles south east of Northampton.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Stoke Goldington is an affluent area that is well connected to several larger towns. The property would suit a range of business opportunities or conversion to a wonderful family home (STPP).

TENURE

Also available to lease to a suitable operator. Nil premium and requesting offers on an annual rent. Remaining lease terms negotiable.
