

3 Grove Cottages, Falconer Road – WD23 3AE
£445,000

This charming 2 bedroom mid-terrace cottage, originally built in the early 1900s and recognised on Hertfordshire's list of locally important buildings in Hertsmere, offers a wonderful blend of character and modern convenience. Recently redecorated throughout, the home features double-glazed replacement sash windows, laminate wood flooring, and gas central heating. The accommodation opens directly into a bright lounge with an open-plan layout flowing into the kitchen and dining space, while a newly fitted bathroom is conveniently located on the ground floor. Both double bedrooms benefit from fitted wardrobes, providing excellent storage. Outside, an attractive south-west front garden creates a welcoming setting, complemented by the advantage of an allocated parking space to the rear of the garden. Situated in the heart of the sought after Bushey Village, the property is within easy reach of local shops, restaurants, schools, and everyday amenities, and is offered with no upper chain, making it an ideal opportunity for buyers seeking a character home in a highly desirable location.
