A fine, characteristically, 19th Century Georgian farmhouse standing in grounds of 0.924 acre or thereabouts. The property has a delightful rural location with open farmland views.

The house is south facing with grounds surrounding. Attached to the property are two sizeable outbuildings.

General modernisation and refurbishment is required with potential for conversion of the mezzanine level floor and indeed the outbuildings subject to planning permission and building regulations.

The accommodation provides, on the ground floor, sitting room, dining room, farmhouse kitchen and half cellar. The first floor provides a landing with steps to a mezzanine attic. There are three double sized bedrooms and a mezzanine level bathroom.

Drainage is by a private treatment Klargester plant installed just over three years ago.

The delightful garden contains various trees and shrubs.

The small settlement of Moorhouse is situated approximately 12 miles north of Newark. Access points to the A1 dual carriageway are within 4 miles. Local amenities are available at Sutton on Trent and Tuxford. There are rail services from Newark Northgate to London King's Cross and the north. Access to the property is from Thorpe Lane. The property is subject to a right of way to The Barn.

The property is constructed of brick elevations under a rosemary tiled roof. The outbuildings are pantiled. Windows are single glazed. The property has an oil fired central heating system and the following accommodation is provided:
