Sheridans

Nestled in the heart of this popular village, this well-proportioned two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow offers a rare opportunity to update and personalise a property rich in local history. Formerly the village post office and owned by the same family for approximately 50 years, it is now offered to the market with no onward chain. The property presents an ideal opportunity for buyers to create a home tailored to their own tastes and requirements, with further scope to extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions and consents.

The accommodation in brief comprises an entrance hall leading to a bright and spacious sitting room with windows to both the front and rear aspects, allowing an abundance of natural light. An inner hallway provides access to a courtyard area and side entrance. The good-sized kitchen is fitted with a range of storage units and ample worktop space, with room for a freestanding cooker and additional appliances. A useful utility nook leads through to a versatile reception room, ideal as a dining room, home office or potential third bedroom, subject to buyer requirements. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, one benefiting from dual-aspect windows and a wash hand basin. These are served by a recently updated wet room. The bungalow benefits from high ceilings, uPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating throughout.

Occupying a generous plot in a sought-after village setting, the property offers excellent potential for further enhancement, making it an attractive proposition for those seeking a home they can truly make their own.

Outside

The property is approached via a driveway providing off-road parking, with post-and-rail fencing and double gates opening onto a gravelled area offering additional parking. Enjoying attractive countryside views, the property occupies a generous plot with gardens extending to the front, side and rear. Predominantly laid to lawn, the gardens provide ample outdoor space and offer excellent potential for landscaping or further enhancement. There is also a hardstanding area suitable for a garden shed or could be for a garage, and has running electricity to it, together with the oil storage tank.

Location

The property enjoys a delightful setting affording far reaching views to the surrounding countryside with easy access to Bradfield Woods, an ancient woodland with a 700-year heritage and described by the Suffolk Wildlife Trust as: "one of the richest woods in Britain". It's a small, quiet and historic woodland and a magnificently peaceful setting in which to take a stroll. Within the village is an historic church and a village hall whilst being approximately 15 minutes from Bury St Edmunds and 45 minutes from Cambridge Science Park. It's also has easy access to train station at Thurston and approximately 20 minutes away from Stowmarket station making it an excellent location for those commuting to Ipswich, Cambridge or London. This area is also served by good local state and private schools.

Directions

Take the A134 from Bury St Edmunds towards Sudbury then at Sicklesmere post office turn left and continue onto Felsham Road where the property will be on the left hand side.
