

Senlac

Set in a peaceful semi-rural position on the edge of the popular village of Old Leake, this extended and fully renovated detached dormer style home offers modern country living with plenty of space both inside and out. Enjoying open field views to the front and rear, the property sits on a generous plot and provides excellent versatility for families or those seeking a quieter lifestyle within easy reach of village amenities, including shops, eateries, and well-regarded primary and secondary schools.

The property was extended and totally renovated by the previous owner in 2021 and the accommodation has a flexible layout that includes two -four double bedrooms, with two to the first floor and two to the second. There is a bathroom and en-suite to the first floor, plus an additional shower room serving the ground floor rooms. Naturally, the design offers the option of utilising any of the rooms as a study, playroom or home office if preferred.

A generous and stylish open-plan dining kitchen with integrated appliances and a well-presented, light-filled living room with wood burner, that opens onto the rear garden and completes the modern interior.

Outside, a large gravel driveway with double five-bar gates provides ample off-road parking and turning space for multiple vehicles, and a double detached garage, making it ideal for anyone needing space for a caravan, motorhome, or similar.

Offered with no onward chain, this truly attractive and well-presented home combines modern comfort within a relaxed countryside setting.
