This beautiful two-bedroom home offers bright living accommodation, generous outdoor space and excellent connectivity to Canary Wharf and Greenwich. One of the property's standout features is its exceptionally large and secluded private garden, an uncommon find for a home of this size in the area, creating a peaceful retreat while remaining within easy reach of London's financial district.

The first-floor open-plan living area has been thoughtfully designed to maximise natural light, featuring three roof windows, multiple additional windows and a Juliet balcony, creating a bright and welcoming space throughout the year. Downstairs, two well-proportioned bedrooms are complemented by an impressive amount of built-in storage, making the home both practical and comfortable for modern living.

Outside, the beautifully established rear garden provides a wonderful balance of mature landscaping and usable entertaining space. Complete with a pond, mature trees, established planting including a palm tree, and a substantial garden shed, it offers a high degree of privacy rarely found in similar properties.
