The Property:

Originally built in the 1940's as Burngate Cottage, the property was extended in the 1990's & has been modernised to a very high standard by its current owners. It offers spacious, versatile accommodation with views from the majority of the windows of the local countryside.

This immaculate yet characterful chalet bungalow, with stunning surrounding views, is accessed via a covered porch with a double glazed window overlooking the front path, along with a boiler cupboard housing the oil boiler and shelving above.

A glass panelled door leads into the dining area, which enjoys a double aspect with a upvc double glazed window to either side, a radiator, ceiling beams, solid wood flooring, and a coats cupboard with hanging rail and storage space below. The wood flooring flows through into an inner hallway from where there is an archway into the kitchen, which has a vaulted ceiling with a double glazed Velux window and a double glazed window looking down towards the sea.

The kitchen has a matching range of cupboards at base level, with a butler's sink set into the work surface with a drainer to the side and Oak worktops over. There is space for an American style upright fridge freezer, space for a range cooker with integral shelving, and a feature fireplace with a wood beam above and tiled base below, along with wood beams to the vaulted ceiling.

The downstairs bedroom, currently being used as a home office, enjoys a double aspect with upvc double glazed windows to the front and side aspects with views of the sea and the Purbeck hills, a radiator and a continuation of the flooring from the hallway.

The utility room has a continuation of the flooring and a matching range of cupboards at base and eye level, with space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. A sink with side drainer is set into the work surface with splashback tiling surrounding. A upvc double glazed door leads into the boot room, which has triple aspect windows, space for coats and boots, and a stable door out to the side garden.

The internal hallway has a radiator and a downstairs storage cupboard.

The cinema/sitting room has two upvc double glazed windows to the side aspect and a radiator.

The spacious triple aspect living room features a large log burner set on a Purbeck stone slab base, and two radiators. A upvc sliding patio door leads out to the rear garden, while double-glazed windows overlook the side aspect and surrounding fields.

The modern shower room comprises of a double shower cubicle with Mira rainfall shower system, a fishbowl wash hand basin set on a fossil style stonework surface with cupboards and storage below, and a WC with hidden cistern. There is splashback tiling surrounding, a heated towel rail, two opaque upvc double glazed windows to the side aspect, a mirror with LED lighting and tiled flooring.

Stairs lead up to the first floor accommodation, where there are ceiling beams and a gallery landing with views down into the kitchen.
