All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Traditionally built unique and modern family homes constructed in 2004 by Galley Homes located in a small select gated development of five unique properties. This home offers the peace of mind of being part of a gated development, super flexible living space whether growing your family, working from home, hosting friends, or accommodating a multi-generational family facilitated by the convenience of a ground floor ensuite double bedroom. This is a prestigious high-quality home built using traditional construction techniques (ensures minimal noise transfer) combined with modern materials and technology. The property has heigh ceilings, oak fire doors, plenty of storage combined with beautifully crafted bespoke cabinetry. No need to do any DIY, just bring your toothbrush and live a hassle-free life focused on your priorities. This impressive five / six-bedroom townhouse with 2,489 sq. ft of living space, offers large generous rooms, very versatile in their use something that is difficult to find. At the heart of this warm light-filled home, is a large open-plan kitchen / dining area, perfect for entertaining. This leads to a snug and conservatory that spills out onto a virtually maintenance free sun-drenched garden designed for al fresco eating / barbequing, entertaining and everyday living. Further highlights of this lovely home include a spacious 20'7 x 17'1 living room with Juliette balcony and fireplace, a cinema room, principal bedroom with ensuite, four further bedrooms and family bathroom. There is a garage and two additional parking spaces one with electric charger.

Perfect Fusion of Location And Way of Living
