Tucked away at the end of a quiet, well landscaped cul-de-sac in the ever-popular Ensbury Park area, this three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a practical layout, a good sense of space, and a location that continues to be highly sought after.

The cul-de-sac itself is particularly appealing, with mature planting and a well-kept feel throughout, along with the added convenience of several visitor parking spaces.

Inside, the property is bright and well maintained, with a straightforward layout that works well for modern living.

The kitchen is well appointed, offering a functional and neatly arranged space for everyday use, while the main living room sits to the rear of the property. This room enjoys direct access to the garden, creating a natural flow between inside and out, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. A useful cloakroom and storage complete the ground floor.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms. The main bedroom benefits from fitted storage and its own en-suite shower room, while the second bedroom also includes a built-in wardrobe. The third bedroom is a flexible space, well suited as a nursery, guest room, or home office. A family bathroom serves the remaining accommodation.

Externally, the rear garden is private and easy to maintain, with a combination of patio and lawn-perfect for outdoor seating and family use. To the front, the property benefits from allocated parking.

The location is a real strength. Ensbury Park is a well-established residential area of Bourne mouth, popular with families and professionals alike. You are within easy reach of well-regarded schools, including Glenmoor and Winton Academies, as well as a good selection of local shops and everyday amenities. Nearby, both Redhill Park and Slades Farm provide excellent green space, with walking routes, recreational facilities, and open areas to enjoy.

Transport links are also close by, providing straightforward access into Bournemouth town centre, as well as routes towards Poole and the surrounding areas, making this a convenient base for commuting and getting around.

Offered with vacant possession and no forward chain, this is a well-balanced home in a popular and convenient location, ideal for buyers looking to move straight in while still having the opportunity to add their own style over time.
