LOCATION

Stanford in the Vale is an appealing and thriving downland village in the arresting Vale of White Horse named for its ancient prehistoric chalk horse on the North Wessex Downs where, according to legend, St George slayed the dragon. Situated midway between the market towns of Wantage (6 miles) and Faringdon (5 miles), easily accessible from the A417, the village itself caters for day-to-day needs with a well-stocked Co-op supermarket incorporating a post office, a hairdressers and a vets. The village's social life is supported by the community café, the local pub, the village hall and church. Both Wantage and Faringdon, with a bus service from the village, offer a comprehensive range of shopping, leisure and recreational facilities as well as a variety of regular markets. In addition, there is a pleasing variety of renowned restaurants and gastro pubs within the surrounding area. The city of Oxford (16 miles) and the commercial centre of Swindon (15 miles) can be accessed via the A420 by car and bus service. Oxford and Didcot (17 miles) have mainline train services to London (Paddington) in under an hour. There is an impressive selection of both state and private education within the locality, with an excellent primary school and pre-school in the village itself and the well-regarded comprehensive schools at Wantage and Faringdon. Outdoor pursuits locally include golf courses at Frilford Heath and riding schools at Baulking and Goosey.

THE PROPERTY

Situated in the charming village of Stanford in the Vale, Faringdon, this delightful end of terrace stone cottage, dating back to 1710, offers a unique blend of historical character and modern comfort. The property is well cared for and beautifully presented throughout and boasts an abundance of original features that will surely captivate any prospective buyer.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a spacious reception room, complete with an impressive inglenook fireplace and an inset woodburning stove. This room would also accommodate a dining table and the oak flooring adds a touch of warmth and elegance to the space. The well-fitted kitchen connects to a garden room, providing an ideal space for a breakfast table or study area and for enjoying the views over the garden.

The cottage comprises three light filled bedrooms, two of which are generous doubles, providing ample space for family or guests. The shower room is functional, and there is potential to reinstate a bath if desired, allowing for personalisation to suit your needs.

The property also has a large loft space which could be converted to further accommodation, subject to the usual requirements.

The beautifully planted cottage garden approaching c.142' in length is a true highlight, offering picturesque views over the surrounding paddock land, making it a serene retreat for relaxation or gardening enthusiasts.

With no onward chain, this property presents a rare opportunity to acquire a home rich in history and charm, set in a peaceful village location. Whether you are looking for a family home or a tranquil getaway, this cottage is sure to impress.
