Outside, the property enjoys a small front garden and an enclosed rear garden providing a pleasant outdoor space for both relaxation and entertaining. To the rear of the property there is a single garage and allocated parking.

The property represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a well-maintained modern home in a sought-after village location.

Newark-on-Trent is a thriving and historic market town situated on the banks of the River Trent, offering an excellent range of amenities and services to cater for everyday needs. The town centre features an attractive blend of independent retailers, national stores, cafes, restaurants and traditional public houses, together with regular markets and a vibrant community atmosphere.

The town is renowned for its rich heritage, with Newark Castle, the Civil War Centre and a wealth of historic architecture providing a fascinating backdrop to modern-day living. A variety of leisure facilities are available including sports clubs, fitness centres, a cinema, theatre and riverside walks.

Newark benefits from excellent transport links, making it particularly popular with commuters. The A1, A46 and A17 are all easily accessible, whilst Newark Northgate railway station offers direct services to London King's Cross in approximately 75 minutes. Newark Castle station provides additional regional rail connections.

The area is well served by a range of highly regarded schools for all age groups, both within Newark itself and in surrounding villages such as Coddington. The village enjoys a strong sense of community and provides local amenities including a primary school, village hall, public house and recreational facilities, whilst remaining only a short distance from the extensive amenities available within Newark.

The combination of village living, excellent transport connections and access to a wide range of amenities continues to make Coddington and Newark one of the most desirable locations within Nottinghamshire.
