A Spacious 1930s Semi-Detached Bungalow with Fresh Interiors and Endless Possibilities

Tucked away in a peaceful spot just moments from the heart of Brixham, this charming and spacious 1930s semi-detached bungalow has recently been refreshed internally with crisp white décor and recently fitted light grey carpets. These simple, neutral updates enhance the sense of space and light throughout, presenting the property as a super blank canvas, ready for a new owner to personalise and make their own.

Perfectly positioned for convenience, the property is just a short stroll from Brixham's vibrant Town Centre and picturesque Harbour. A local bus service is within easy reach, and Parkham Park, just around the corner, provides a lovely open space for families, dog walkers, or those simply looking for a bit of greenery.

While the home is certainly ready to move into, there remains plenty of scope for further enhancement or reconfiguration to suit individual tastes and needs. Behind the scenes, much of the essential work has already been done, including the installation of a modern and regularly serviced combi boiler, recent electrical certification, and UPVC double glazing throughout.

Inside, the bungalow is surprisingly spacious. There are two generous double bedrooms with views to the front and rear gardens respectively, a bright lounge with a feature fireplace, a well-sized family bathroom, and a dual-aspect kitchen/diner at the rear of the property, which opens out to the side.

Outside, the property benefits from a long private driveway offering ample parking, a pretty lawned front garden, and a sunny, private rear garden that is not overlooked – an ideal space for relaxing, gardening, or entertaining. There is also a substantial garage with light and power.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this property is perfect for those seeking a solid, well-positioned home with instant appeal and exciting potential. Internal viewing is highly recommended.
