ABOUT THE HOME

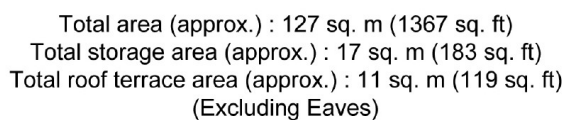

A charming and well presented four bedroom, split level Edwardian maisonette which benefits from two bathrooms, a private rear garden and large roof terrace.

Entered via its own front door, there is a generous entrance hallway and stairs that lead to the first floor landing. To the front of the property is a spacious reception room with bay window allowing natural light to flood into the room, and adjacent is a bedroom/study. At the centre of the property there are two further bedrooms and a well presented family bathroom, towards the rear you will find a beautiful kitchen/dining room which offers a fantastic entertaining space and access to a South West facing garden. On the second floor there is a large private roof terrace, impressive master bedroom with a spacious and modern en suite bathroom.

The property is located on one of Earlsfields most sought after residential roads and is within easy reach of Earlsfield Primary School, Earlsfield Mainline Station and Garratt Lane's vast array of amenities.
