Deansway, London, N2 0JE

This 1930s detached house offers 2,309 sq. ft. of great living space on the popular, tree-lined avenue of Deansway, London, N2.
Perfectly combining traditional character with modern comfort, the property features four spacious bedrooms, three contemporary bathrooms, and three versatile reception rooms. Located on the prestigious borders of Hampstead Garden Suburb and falling within the London Borough of Barnet, the home sits within easy reach of highly rated local schools and East Finchley Underground Station (Northern Line).
The ground floor layout includes a well-appointed kitchen that flows naturally into the bright, interconnected reception spaces, making it a brilliant set-up for family life, formal dining, or hosting friends. Upstairs, the bedrooms offer quiet, comfortable spaces away from the bustle of daily life, beautifully balanced by high-specification bathrooms that easily handle the morning rush for a large household.
Blending period charm, excellent proportions, and an enviable North London address, the home places you just moments away from the independent shops, boutique cafes, and restaurants of East Finchley High Road, as well as coveted local parklands like Lyttelton Playing Fields and Cherry Tree Wood. It is a wonderful opportunity for families and professionals alike looking to settle into a fantastic, highly desirable location.
