A side porch leads off into a sitting room with exposed beams and open fireplace and a dining kitchen with further beams, open fireplace, walk-in pantry and an opportunity to update, replace and restyle the existing 1970's base units.

The side porch also provides access out into the rear garden, a door leading off into a fuel store and a bathroom presenting a further opportunity for a buyer to update, replace and restyle to their own taste.

The first floor landing leads off into 2 double bedrooms, both with en-suite wash rooms featuring a basin and wc.

A driveway at the front of the property provides generous parking and a part paved courtyard area off the side porch at the rear of the cottage allows access into an attached stone built barn and steps leading up to the 45m long rear garden which climbs up to reveal breathtaking views toward the White Horse.
