Overview...

A beautifully presented 2 Double Bedroom home which has the enviable benefit of backing directly on to and having access to the South Downs National Park.

The semi-detached home boasts character features such as exposed floorboards, picture rails, panelled doors and an open fireplace in the Sitting Room.

Outside the property benefits from a gorgeous garden of a Westerly aspect. The garden is both mature and established and has been cleverly created to provide areas within the garden suitable for alfresco dining and entertaining and to simply enjoy the garden.

The property itself is noticeably light and bright and offers a Sitting Room with open fireplace and bay window, a Kitchen Dining Room and a Conservatory with delightful views of the garden. Upstairs there are views of the South Downs, 2 Double Bedrooms and a gorgeous Bathroom complete with rolltop bath.
