Last remaining home of this unique style.

Step into the grand foyer and prepare to be amazed. The open-plan living space instantly impresses with its double-height glass feature wall, flooding the room with natural light and creating a sense of space and grandeur. The bespoke kitchen is a statement in style, finished in matte black with luxury marble-effect worktops, a large central island, and integrated premium appliances. The room flows effortlessly into the dining and lounge area, perfect for entertaining or relaxing while enjoying garden views through the panoramic glazing.

The ground floor also features a spacious double bedroom with French doors to the garden, a sleek en-suite shower room, a separate WC, and a laundry room, offering convenience and versatility for family life or guests.

Upstairs, the landing overlooks the living space below with a striking mezzanine view through the front glass facade. Two additional double bedrooms await, each finished with soft neutral décor and plush carpets. Both are served by two contemporary bathrooms, one with a stylish walk-in rainfall shower and the other featuring a modern three-piece suite with a feature black grid shower screen, LED-lit mirror, and high-end fixtures.

Outside, the property is just as impressive. A private landscaped garden, two-car driveway, and premium timber fencing offer privacy and kerb appeal, while the quiet setting provides a sense of calm just minutes from local amenities.
