Description

The property is located off Ripon Road in a convenient near town centre position.

With gas fire central heating the well planned accommodation features sealed unit double glazed windows and gas fired central heating from an ideal Combi boiler.

The property also has an insulated loft with a pulldown ladder and cavity wall insulation.

The accommodation comprises in greater detail front entrance porch, lounge, spacious dining kitchen with a Beko washing machine and fan assisted oven and four ring electric hob.

There are two bedrooms to the rear of the property and a house bathroom.

The property features a long private driveway with a private shaped lawn and shrubs and at the rear a garage with a three tiered low maintenance garden.

The property is well placed for those who may require daily amenities on Kings Road. Additionally a short walk away there is a petrol station/general store.

Harrogate is a popular town that features a good road and rail network connecting the traveller and commuter to Leeds York and London.

The town features many attractions that include Betty tea rooms, other cafés, bars, restaurants and the famed 200 acre Stray.
