26 Morley Place

Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 0HS

Guide £435,000

An extended semi-detached house situated in an established residential area within the town.

Description

The property has gas to radiator heating together with double glazing and includes good hall space, a generous reception room and a 'white gloss' finish kitchen. There is now a good sized conservatory with doors to the garden, inner hall with access to the garage and a useful downstairs shower room/cloakroom. On the first floor there are four bedrooms and a bathroom in traditional white. Outside there is a garage with a driveway to the side, front garden and an enclosed rear garden.

Directions

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).
