DESCRIPTION

The ground floor offers a welcoming porch into a characterful living room, where exposed beams create a warm and inviting atmosphere. A traditional inglenook fireplace provides a natural focal point, adding to the home's authentic charm.

A 'secret' door in the arts and crafts panelling leads through the hallway to the dining area. The dining room continues the period appeal with dual aspect mullion windows. The kitchen has a practical layout, with windows overlooking the garden, while a hallway, cloakroom and useful boot room complete the ground floor accommodation.

On the first floor there are two well proportioned bedrooms, a smaller third bedroom and family bathroom. The second floor provides two additional bedrooms, each with exposed timbers.

A wrap around garden is mainly laid to lawn with a fantastic range of mature trees and shrubs. There is a timber framed garage, outbuilding and greenhouse included, alongside the useful parking space.

AGENTS NOTE

The roof is constructed from asbestos cement slate roof. Buyers are advised to make their own enquiries with their lender and surveyor where necessary. The property also has a shared septic tank that requires replacement.

DIRECTIONS

From our office in Painswick, turn right onto New Street and continue for approximately 2.5 miles. Turn left onto Portway and continue down the hill for around a mile. Turn right onto Valley Lane and the property will be found a short distance afterwards on the left hand side.

LOCATION

The property is situated in Portway, within the highly regarded village of Upton St Leonards, a sought-after semi-rural community positioned at the foot of the Cotswolds. The village offers an excellent balance of countryside living and everyday convenience.

Upton St Leonards benefits from a strong community feel and a range of local amenities including a well-regarded primary school, village shop, public house, church and village hall. For day-to-day needs and socialising, the popular Portway Farm Shop and café are close by, offering locally sourced produce and a welcoming meeting place.

The property is ideally placed for commuters, with Cheltenham, Gloucester and Stroud only a short drive away, providing a wider range of shopping, leisure facilities and mainline rail services. The A46 and M5 are also easily accessible, making travel throughout the region straightforward.

Surrounded by open countryside and an abundance of walking and cycling routes, the location is particularly appealing to those who enjoy outdoor pursuits, while remaining well connected. Overall, Portway offers a peaceful village setting with excellent accessibility, making it an ideal location for a wide range of buyers.
