GARDENS & GROUNDS

The property is approached down a bridlepath, nestled away within a picturesque woodland.

The property sits on approximately 1 acre with it's own private woodland and provides copious amounts of privacy. There is potential for parking and to create alternative access from the top of the wood.

HOW TO GET THERE

When approaching from the centre of Church Stretton proceed down Sandford Avenue, cross the traffic lights and continue to Hope Bowdler. At the bottom of the hill take the road on the right, signposted to Ticklerton, and after half a mile turn right up a hill, signposted Chelmick. Continue down the bank to Chelmick Valley, where the brideway will be found leading sharply to the left, opposite Chelmick House. Walk down the brideway and the property will be found after some 250 yards on the left hand side.
