Ground Floor

The home opens with a charming porch leading into a welcoming entrance hall, where parquet herringbone Karndean flooring immediately sets a tone of character, craftsmanship and timeless elegance. This beautiful first impression gives the ground floor a sense of warmth and distinction, hinting at the generous proportions and traditional appeal found throughout the property. To the left, the formal lounge provides a graceful room for entertaining, centred around a fireplace feature. Whether arranged for quiet evenings, family gatherings or more refined occasions, this inviting reception room offers an elegant setting with a wonderful sense of comfort and occasion. Positioned conveniently to the right of the entrance hall is a ground floor w/c, thoughtfully placed for guests and everyday practicality. Moving beyond the staircase, the formal dining room creates a dedicated space for evening meals, celebrations and family dining, offering a more traditional layout that will appeal to those who value defined living areas. Further into the home, the living room offers a more relaxed and informal setting, ideal for unwinding at the end of the day. Sliding doors open directly to the rear garden, allowing the room to connect beautifully with the outside space and making it perfect for summer entertaining and family life. Completing the ground floor is a 'Smallbone' branded kitchen, fitted with an abundance of wooden base and wall units that provide excellent storage and preparation space. With two sinks and a five point gas hob, the kitchen is well arranged for keen cooks, busy households and those who appreciate a practical, well-equipped heart to the home. There is also a door leading to the rear garden from here.

First Floor

A stunning staircase and landing introduces the first floor, creating an attractive central space from which all rooms are reached. The layout is practical and well considered, offering excellent bedroom accommodation for families, visiting guests or those needing flexible space to work from home without compromising on comfort or lifestyle. The first bedroom is a spacious double, enhanced by a front south facing window that welcomes natural light and gives the room a bright, uplifting feel. The second and third bedrooms are also doubles, each benefiting from built in storage cupboards that enhance everyday practicality. Bedroom three currently includes a shower and hand basin, making it particularly useful for guests or older children, while still retaining the flexibility to be adapted to future needs. The fourth bedroom is currently arranged as an office, providing an ideal work from home environment away from the main living areas. Equally, it could serve beautifully as a child's bedroom or nursery, depending on the requirements of the next owner. The family bathroom is impressively equipped, featuring a corner bath, large separate shower, w/c, hand basin set within a vanity unit and a bidet. Its generous arrangement offers both comfort and convenience, providing a well-appointed space suited to family routines.

Exterior

The rear garden offers a wonderful sense of space, with steps leading up to a large laid to lawn section that provides an excellent setting for family life, outdoor play and summer enjoyment. Paved areas create natural spots for seating, dining and entertaining, allowing the garden to be enjoyed throughout the seasons. An outbuilding, currently used as a hobby and gardening area, adds further versatility and will appeal to those seeking space for storage, creative pursuits or practical outdoor use. In addition, the garage storage unit features double doors leading to the front driveway, offering excellent functionality and useful access. The garden can also be reached via gated side access, adding convenience for gardeners, families and those bringing items through from the front of the property. To the front, a block paved driveway provides parking for multiple vehicles, framed by a beautiful brick boundary and mature shrubbery that enhances kerb appeal.
