"A 1930's detached house enjoying a quiet, sunny location in the much sought after village of Timsbury, adjoining open fields and being offered for sale with no onward".

The accommodation comprises entrance vestibule opening into the main entrance hallway with attractive balustrade staircase with cupboard beneath. Lounge to front with fireplace and bay window. Dining room with window overlooking rear garden. Study area with fireplace and handy cloakroom w.c. Kitchen with a range of fitted units and a pleasant dual aspect across fields. Door into garage which has power and lighting, up and over door front and door and window to side, currently used as an office and store. On the first floor are four decent sized bedrooms, the main bedroom is particularly large with a spacious ensuite bedroom, separate shower room. Gas central heating and double glazing.

Externally the property is approached via five bar gated access into a private drive running from the front of the house around to the left-hand side and bordered by a lawn with a mature apple tree. Parking for several vehicles and leading to the garage. Mature boundary hedging creates a good deal of privacy for this plot and a level lawn sweeps around the right-hand side of the house. Timber summer house and patio garden to rear.

Tenure: Freehold. Council Tax Band: E.
