

Parklands
Llandogo

An aerial photograph of a large, well-maintained estate. The central feature is a large, green lawn with a circular garden bed in the middle, containing several topiary trees and shrubs. A gravel driveway curves along the right side of the lawn, lined with a row of conical evergreen trees. In the background, there is a large, two-story house with a red-tiled roof and a brick chimney. To the right of the house is a large, brown barn with a curved roof. The entire property is surrounded by dense, lush green trees and a well-kept hedge. A black metal gate is visible at the bottom of the frame, marking the entrance to the property.

The property is approached via a gated, tree-lined driveway leading to a spacious parking area with room for multiple vehicles and access to the detached double garage. Constructed to complement the main residence, the garage features an up-and-over door to the front, a concrete floor, and a secondary side access door, all beneath a pitched tiled roof. Power and lighting are connected. To the left-hand side of the property is additional parking together with an oak open-ended carport beneath a pitched tiled roof.

The beautifully landscaped formal gardens are situated to the front of the property and are predominantly laid to lawn, with shaped grass areas complemented by well-stocked herbaceous borders. Meticulously maintained, the gardens are interspersed with a variety of mature trees, flora, and fauna, all enjoying delightful views across the surrounding woodland. The gardens continue to the rear, where they are bordered by a low-level brick wall planted with an attractive selection of shrubs and flowers. Adjoining the garage is a timber-framed storage area.

The grounds total approximately 11 acres and comprise three parcels of enclosed paddocks which all have vehicular access which can alternatively be reached via a second driveway that goes from the road previously used for agricultural access. TWO OUTBUILDINGS, purpose built and formerly used in connection with poultry farming, offer scope for conversion or alternative use (subject to necessary consents). Additionally, there is a substantial DUTCH BARN (approximately 3,240 square feet in gross internal area) of steel-frame construction. The barn is of traditional design and remains suitable for storage.
