88 HARE LANE

An attractive, halls-adjoining Edwardian home situated in an ultra-convenient location just moments on foot from the village centre, shops and station for services into London Waterloo. This substantial period property is ready to move into with a chain-free transaction and has recently been the subject of redecoration and new carpets. The layout is both contemporary and versatile and on the ground floor there is a spacious entrance hall, traditional front reception room, an expansive kitchen / breakfast / family room with bifolds to the garden, a utility room and cloakroom / WC. The first and second floors offer the choice of five individual bedrooms with a family bathroom and top floor en suite bathroom completing the picture. Externally, there is off road parking to the front and pedestrian side access through to a low maintenance rear garden with an area of decking and the remainder laid with artificial grass.
