Heyford Avenue, SW8

A remarkable three double bedroom split level conversion that has been renovated to an excellent standard throughout. At over1,400sq.ft this beautiful home is flooded with natural light and benefits from a healthy lease and a private front garden.

Located on the second floor and leading into a nice hallway that flows through into a spacious reception room with a large sash window that draws in lots of natural light. Combining well with the timeless shaker style kitchen that has views down the street. There are two large double bedrooms that are served by a stylish family bathroom.

Third principle bedroom is located on the third floor which has a W/C and a separate free standing bath tucked away with handy eaves storage beyond. This turnkey property is being sold with no onward chain and benefits from a healthy lease, a secluded private front garden and a brand new roof.

Heyford Avenue is a quiet street located just off South Lambeth Road. This well connected location provides a short walk to both Vauxhall and Oval stations. There are numerous local shops, restaurants close by as is Vauxhall Park and Albert Square.
