Pemberton Road, Consett, DH8

£140,000

Offering spacious, versatile accommodation in a convenient location, this well-presented end-terrace home would suit a wide range of buyers, from first-time purchasers and couples to small families and investors.

Step inside and you'll find two generous reception rooms, giving you the flexibility of a separate lounge and dining room, ideal for relaxing day to day or entertaining friends and family. To the rear, the fitted kitchen provides plenty of storage and workspace in a practical, functional layout.

Upstairs, two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom complete the accommodation.

Location

The property is positioned close to Consett town centre, putting supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities within easy reach. For outdoor space, Blackhill and Consett Park offers green space, children's play areas and walking routes, while the Coast-to-Coast (C2C) cycle route passes through the town, ideal for cyclists and walkers alike.

Getting around is straightforward, with the A692 and A691 providing road links to Newcastle, Durham and the surrounding areas, and regular bus services running from Consett Bus Station to neighbouring towns and cities.

Primary and secondary schools, healthcare facilities and other everyday services are all close by.

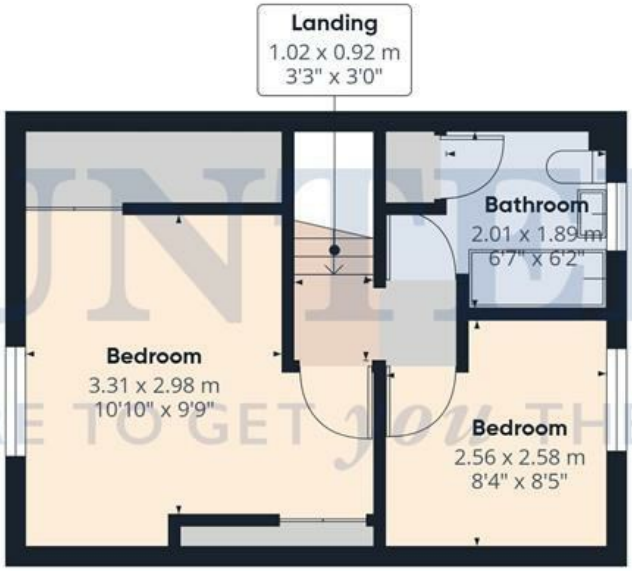

In summary

With generous living space, a practical layout and a convenient position close to local amenities and transport links, this end-terrace home is well worth a viewing. Contact Hunters Consett today to arrange yours.
