 GUIDE PRICE £500,000 to £525,000

This impressive semi-detached house offers remarkable opportunity for those seeking spacious, well-proportioned, well-appointed accommodation which has retained a wealth of original features and character.

Boasting four bedrooms, a well appointed west-facing lounge with cast iron fireplace, adjacent dining room, and further home office / garden room / bedroom 5, the property is larger than many others in the area and has to be seen to be appreciated.

It is set-back in an elevated position behind a small green, commanding far-reaching views to the West, with front drive offering space for two cars and a front lawn with mature hedging.

With its prime location in Brighton, this fabulous house boasts easy access to local amenities, schools and transport links, and is a rare find, offering space, character and investment potential.

A spacious, bright semi-detached family home with large rear garden, set in an elevated position with access to the South Downs. Built in 1929 the house offers a wealth of original features, off-road parking, local PO / shop, bus and rail links in and out of the city.
