Situated within a desirable residential area of Perth, 32 Anderson Drive is a spacious and well-maintained link-detached villa offering flexible family accommodation across two levels. Occupying a generous plot with attractive gardens, driveway, and integral garage, this impressive home combines comfortable living space with a convenient location.

The ground floor comprises a bright and spacious living room with large picture windows allowing excellent natural light and attractive outlooks. The fitted dining kitchen provides ample storage and workspace, with access to a charming sunroom overlooking the rear garden. A modern bathroom and a versatile ground floor bedroom complete the lower level, offering flexibility for guests, home working, or single-level living. Upstairs, there are two generously sized double bedrooms along with a useful WC, creating ideal family accommodation. The property benefits from excellent storage throughout and well-proportioned rooms designed for practical everyday living. Externally, the beautifully maintained gardens feature lawned areas, mature planting, patio seating space, and a timber garden shed. A driveway and garage provide ample off-street parking. Located close to local amenities, schools, transport links, and Perth city centre, this attractive home will appeal to families and a wide range of buyers alike.
