Outside

The front of the property enjoys a particularly wide frontage which provides driveway parking for a number of vehicles which then leads to a large detached garage which has a side personal door. The rear garden is approached via a wide side access which leads to the rear garden and two patio areas and steps down to the main area of garden. The rear garden extends to approximately 300 ft and is bordered by mature boundary hedging to both sides. Beyond the initial garden there is a natural pathway to a second area which would now benefit from some attention to widen the useable area. To the far end of the garden there is a stream (Eden) and the overall plot extends to approximately 1/3 of an acre.
