Accommodation

The house is approached via a generous reception hall with cloaks cupboard and downstairs cloakroom. At its heart is a striking 32ft kitchen/sitting/dining room overlooking the rear garden. Recently refitted, the kitchen includes a central island, utility room, and access to a second cloakroom, the garden, and the integral double garage. The sitting area is centred around a feature fireplace, while the dual aspect dining space opens via French doors to the garden. Further living space is provided by a bright dual aspect living room, a rear aspect family room, and a study currently used as a gym. Upstairs, a galleried landing with study area and feature window leads to five well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys garden views, a walk-in closet, further built-in wardrobe, and an ensuite bathroom with separate shower. The remaining double bedrooms are served by a second ensuite and a family bathroom.

Planning permission granted (21/0421/FFU) Erection of a single storey extension to the kitchen, erection of a porch to the front entrance door, erection of an outbuilding in rear garden to be used as a Gymnasium/Summer House and erection of brick piers and dwarf wall with railings to front boundary with mechanised sliding gate.
