An exciting opportunity to secure a home that is set to undergo a complete exterior transformation, turning the property from its current appearance into a smart, modern and welcoming home similar to the example shown.

The earlier you secure the property, the more input you can have into the finished design. Subject to the stage of the refurbishment and available options, an early buyer may have the opportunity to make choices on certain finishes, colours and design details, allowing you to put your own stamp on the home before the work is completed.
