Barby Cricket Ground is in Longdown Lane opposite the windmill. Schooling is available nearby in Rugby, including Lawrence Sheriff School for Boys and Rugby High School for Girls and good independent schools at Bilton Grange, Princethorpe College and world famous Rugby School, all within a short drive. Day-to-day shopping can be found in the neighbouring market towns of Rugby and Daventry where there is a wide range of High Street and independent retail outlets. The excellent road networks give immediate access to the A5, A14, A361 as well as the extensive motorway network, with very easy access to the M1. There is also a frequent rail service from Rugby station providing a high-speed service into London Euston in less than 50 minutes.

Ground Floor

The property is entered via a welcoming entrance porch with traditional quarry tiled flooring which is under floor heated, and ample space for coats and shoes. A multi-paned door leads into the spacious living room, featuring multi-paned windows overlooking the front aspect, an additional side window, and an abundance of exposed ceiling and wall timbers. At the heart of the room is a truly impressive inglenook fireplace, creating a striking focal point with its flagstone hearth, intricate brickwork, recessed areas, and a multi-fuel log-burner inset, complemented by a further feature fireplace set to the side of the inglenook. A brace-and-latch door opens into the kitchen/breakfast room, which continues the period theme with quarry tiled flooring, with underfloor heating, and exposed ceiling timbers. The kitchen is fitted with oak wall and base units with drawers and work surfaces over and features Aga range cooker with electric ovens, gas hob (fed by cylinder gas) and an extractor hood above. There is space and plumbing for a dishwasher, washing machine and fridge/freezer, with tiling to the splashback areas. Windows overlook the side and rear gardens, with a door providing direct garden access. Steps lead up to the dining room, which can be closed off via a sliding door and features a decorative elegant Adams-style fireplace with marble hearth (fire not in use), ideal for formal entertaining. From here, a multi-paned door opens into the family/garden room, featuring exposed floorboards and flooded with natural light from numerous windows and glazed French doors opening onto the garden, creating a seamless connection between indoors and out. An inner hall, accessed via a further sliding door from both the dining room and living room, leads to the cellar and a wc/utility room fitted with vinyl tiled flooring, pedestal wash hand basin and wc, and offering additional space for appliances such as a tumble dryer and fridge/freezer.

A brace-and-latch door leads to a built-in cupboard (currently housing the water tank piping for the solar water heating), with further doors opening to the first-floor accommodation. The large principal bedroom overlooks the side aspect and benefits from fitted wardrobes along one wall and a dressing room, currently used as a study, featuring dual-aspect windows. The bedroom also enjoys access to a well-appointed en-suite, fully tiled and panelled, with a panelled bath, bidet, wc, wash hand basin, and chrome-and-glass corner shower enclosure.
