PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Situated on the edge of the highly desirable market town of Snaith, in a sought-after residential area, this beautifully presented home is ready to move into and perfectly suited to growing families and professionals alike.

The inviting lounge, featuring a charming bay window, provides an ideal setting for relaxation and cosy evenings. To the rear, the impressive open-plan living space has been thoughtfully designed to enhance both family life and entertaining, seamlessly connecting the kitchen, dining, and lounge areas so everyone can remain part of the conversation. Patio doors lead out to a fully enclosed rear garden, allowing the indoor and outdoor spaces to be enjoyed together during the warmer months. An integral garage, conveniently accessed via the utility room, adds further practicality to everyday living.

Upstairs, the bedrooms are bright and generously proportioned, with two benefitting from en-suite facilities, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom.

Blending traditional character with modern and contemporary design, this home offers stylish open-plan living and has been finished to a high specification, including energy-efficient features throughout.

Snaith is a highly regarded historic market town, offering a vibrant selection of local and independent businesses. It is particularly popular with families, benefiting from both primary and secondary schools, as well as excellent transport links including its own train station and easy access to nearby motorway networks.
