LOCATION

Camden Road lies in the popular St John's area of Sevenoaks, easy walking distance from the bustling town centre and Sevenoaks mainline station (offering direct high-speed links to London Charing Cross and Cannon Street in around 30 minutes). The road benefits from a quiet, residential feel while being close to handy local shops, cafés, and eateries on nearby St John's Hill. The Rifleman Public house is close by and they pride themselves on being part of the local community. Excellent schools are within easy reach, including Sevenoaks Primary, St John's Primary, Knole Academy, Trinity School, and grammar options. Bat & Ball station is also approximately half a mile away, enhancing connectivity. Properties on Camden Road rarely come to the market, reflecting its status as one of Sevenoaks' most desirable and convenient residential streets. This peaceful yet central location attracts families and commuters alike, with recent sales and listings on the road highlighting strong demand for its blend of character homes, proximity to amenities, transport links, and scenic surroundings. The Bees, having last changed hands in 2012, represents a truly rare opportunity to acquire a charming cottage in this enviable setting.
