Tudor Barn, Sion Hill Court, Sion Hill, Wolverley, DY10 2YY

Summary...

Positioned at the side of a long private tree-lined driveway, entirely concealed by mature parkland and electric gates is this exceptionally unique and enchanted property. Offering immense character and charm through many original features; this wonderful barn conversion is perfect for multi generational living for large and mixed families due to its flexible and versatile layout. Having calming views across communal gardens through captivating floor-to-ceiling arch windows from the lounge; the property is centred around an impressive dining hall accessed via double doors with 23 ft height void creating a wonderful sociable backdrop for entertaining friends and family. The breakfast kitchen is well equipped with integral appliances, offers dual aspect and stable door to rear garden. Accessed off the kitchen through a lobby area leads to a utility/ WC adding an essential sense of practicality. Completing the ground floor is one of four bedroom suites with useful built-in storage; perfect for teenagers or elderly relatives. With stairs leading from comfortable-size lounge with feature log burning stove, leads to two further bedrooms, one with walk-in wardrobe and both with ensuite facilities. The master bedroom is located off an impressive mezzanine landing accessed off the dining hall with low-level beam and built-in storage with further dual aspect and ensuite bathroom. The rear garden is beautifully established and is partly walled with various seating areas, large well maintained lawn and access to two separate garages. To the front of the property is a large private gravelled driveway allowing space for multiple vehicles. For any discerning buyers who idolise semi rural living with the practicalities of being closely situated to nearby Towns and Villages and want something that stands out; viewings are highly recommended to appreciate what's on offer.
