1 Northmead

Narberth

A semi-detached 3 bedroom traditional house, situated conveniently within Narberth town centre, only a short walking distance from the local primary school, train station and high street shops. The property requires modernising, but offers excellent sized accommodation with a generous ground floor footprint. There are front and rear gardens, plus the added benefit of rear parking. This property is offered for sale with no onward chain and should be viewed to appreciate its full potential.

Situation

The property is conveniently situated within Narberth town, within walking distance to the local school, train station, CK's supermarket and high street shopping parade. Narberth has a good range of shops and services, making it a very popular town in the heart of Pembrokeshire.
