Summary

In the tranquil and sought-after area of Redbrook, Barnsley, this unique three-bedroom detached bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and style. Set on a generous plot, the property is tucked away, providing a peaceful retreat while still being conveniently located.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hall and a convenient downstairs WC that leads into a modern, fitted kitchen and dining room, ideal for both family meals and entertaining guests. The hallway creates a seamless flow into the cosy living room flows and to the stunning conservatory, adorned with a beautiful sunroof that invites natural light, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The bungalow boasts three spacious double bedrooms, two of which feature en-suite bathrooms, ensuring privacy and convenience for family and guests alike. A well-appointed family bathroom adds to the functionality of the home.

Notable features of the home include exquisite stained glass panelling and charming bay windows throughout, which enhance the character and elegance of the property.

The garden wraps around the house, providing ample outdoor space for relaxation and recreation, while the garage and additional shed offer valuable storage solutions. With off-road parking available, this property ensures both convenience and privacy, as it is not overlooked by neighbouring homes.

This stunning bungalow truly embodies the essence of a dream home, combining modern living with unique charm. Properties of this calibre are in high demand, so do not miss the opportunity to make it yours. Act quickly to secure this exceptional residence in Barnsley.
