The Property

A stylish and contemporary two-bedroom, two bathroom second floor apartment, in a highly desirable location within the heart of the town. Further benefiting from an eco-friendly heat recycling system designed to lower carbon footprint and heating bills, allocated off-street parking, secure entry phone system, a lift to the block and communal grounds.

The Setting

Situated in a quiet, modern pocket of the historic market town of Saffron Walden, Allard Way offers an ideal balance of suburban peace and town-center convenience. The property is just a 15-minute walk from the town's vibrant market square, home to independent shops and cafes. Residents have an array of premier local amenities practically on their doorstep, with the Lord Butler Fitness and Leisure Centre positioned just moments away on Peaslands Road, offering a 25-metre swimming pool, full gym, and sports courts. For shopping, major supermarkets including Tesco, Aldi, and Waitrose are all situated within a half-mile radius, alongside the town's vibrant mix of independent shops, cafes, and restaurants. The area is also rich in culture and entertainment, featuring the renowned Saffron Hall concert venue and the independent Saffron Screen cinema for film enthusiasts, while the award-winning Saffron Walden Museum and the celebrated Fry Art Gallery provide exceptional local heritage and art collections. Families benefit from proximity to high-achieving schools, including Saffron Walden County High School. The location is particularly advantageous for commuters, positioned just 2 miles from Audley End mainline railway station, which provides fast, direct rail links into London Liverpool Street in as little as 55 minutes (averaging around 1 hour 5 minutes), 25 minutes to Stansted Airport and North to Cambridge in just 17 to 21 minutes, while the M11 motorway is easily accessible within 6 miles. With the scenic Bridge End Garden and the Common just a stroll away, the location perfectly blends rural charm with excellent transport connectivity.
