Overview

This charming two-bedroom terraced home is nestled within Pannier Mews, and is just a short stroll away from the town centre and local amenities. The property offers a lounge/diner which opens out to the private courtyard garden, and a well planned kitchen. The two bedrooms are generously sized, and complemented by a well appointed bathroom. One highlight of the home is the off-road parking – a rare and valuable benefit in such a central location. This home is perfectly suited to first-time buyers or those seeking a conveniently located property in the heart of Bideford.
