

Tring Avenue, Ealing Common, W5

Beautifully designed to combine period features with contemporary living and ideally located in the heart of Ealing Common, just a short walk from the station. This impressive five-bedroom, three-bathroom semi-detached house has been fully extended and refurbished to an exceptional standard, representing phenomenal value for a large family home in one of the most desirable parts of Ealing.

To the rear of the property is a stunning free-flowing kitchen and open-plan reception space - designed for both family life and entertaining - which opens directly onto a substantial rear garden measuring approximately 100 feet. Floor-to-ceiling tri-fold doors span the width of the reception, creating seamless access to the terrace and garden beyond. The property further benefits from multiple off-street parking spaces.
